CATALOGUE

OF

Richly Carved Oak

RARE OLD CHINA,

Household FURNITURE,

Choice GLASS, ORNAMENTS, PLATED GOODS, about 1,200 Volumes of BOOKS, CARRIAGES, HAY, and other Effects.

Belonging to the late REV. PREBENDARY NEWELL, which

MR. JAMES WHEATLEY

Has been instructed to SELL BY AUCTION,

On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday,
DEC. 16th, 17th, and 18th, 1901.

ORDER OF SALE.

FIRST DAY.—Contents of Dining and Drawing Rooms, China Pantry, and Bedrooms.

SECOND DAY.—Old China, Carved Oak, Plated Goods, Contents of Kitchen, Scullery, &c.

THIRD DAY.—Books, Furniture of Study, Carriages, and Outdoor Effects.

The Auctioneer invites special attention to this Sale. The Old Oak will be found particularly choice, the Old China rare and well selected, the Household Furniture substantial, and the China and Glass excellent. The Carriages have only recently been done up, and the Sale will be found worthy of general attention.

On View Saturday, December 14th, from 10 to 4, and Mornings of Sale.

The Sale will commence each day at 12 o'clock.

PRICE SIXPENCE.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between the bidders or otherwise as to any lot, the lot in dispute to be put up again and re-sold. The Auctioneer also reserves the right of refusing any bidding, withdrawing any lots, or altering the particulars as stated for this Auction.

2.—No person to advance less than 3d under 5s, and five per cent. above that amount, or such sum as shall be named by the Auctioneer, nor retract his or her bidding.

3.—The purchasers to pay at the fall of the hammer a deposit of five shillings in the pound on the amount of their respective purchases, or the whole amount, if required, and in default of which the lot or lots so purchased will be put up again and re-sold.

4.—Each purchaser to pay the total amount of his or her purchase-money upon the whole of the lots before the delivery of any lot.

5.—The lots to be taken away with all faults and errors in description, number, or measure, if any, between the hours of 9 and 12 on the morning after the day of Sale, and be at the purchaser's risk after the fall of the hammer.

6.—No lots can be delivered during the Auction. On no account will any money be taken during the Auction, nor any lot removed until paid for. (This condition to be strictly adhered to).

On failure of complying with the above conditions, the deposit money (if any) shall be forfeited, and the lot or lots shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) by such re-sale together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at the present sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.
